

THE RUSTIN
HERALD'S
SENIOR EDITION
2021-2022

The Class of 2022

Rustin Administration 2021-2022

Principal Dr. Michael Marano

Assistant Principals Dr. Corey Fields

Dr. Chrissy Eagles

Dr. Chris Lunardi

Athletic Director Mr. Devon Landgraff

Cover Art Amy Au

Ema Cara

Sydney Cirincione

Laney Costin

Moira Hill

Chloe Mattie

Gavin Merrick

Maryah Otero

Sam Page

Erin Schwacke

Evan Starr

Lily Stewart-Sousa

Maricia Vanderhost

Reagan Weldon Peri

Amy Yang

Rustin Herald Advisor Mr. Kevin Diehl

Request a Digital Copy kdiehl@wcasd.net

H Zangwill

My Favorite Memory: GSA and Theater

My Senior Will: To Dom, I leave my anxiety, because you probably don't have enough of it To Kaiden, I leave you my height, because you're tall and no one likes that To Roy, I leave my Starbucks addiction, but yours may actually be worse than mine To Will Bosch, I leave straight hair, which I feel is self-explanatory To Caidyn, I leave you all my hair dye, so you can grow up to be like me To Theo and Henry, I leave being my favorite freshmen, cause I love you guys To Arnav, I leave being my actual favorite freshman...

Nick Meisinger

My Favorite Memory: Winning the Ches-Mont championship with the golf team.

My Senior Will: To Rustin Golf, I leave you a loaded team for next year so that you can run it back and win another Ches-Mont championship. To Sam Feeny, I leave you my membership at Penn Oaks so you can practice there whenever you want. To Nick Linkchorst, I leave you my wisdom on the golf course so that you can learn from my experiences while playing for Rustin. To Sophia Desantis, I leave you my empty Rustin golf bag so that there are no surprises when you open it up next year. I also leave you my leadership qualities so that you can successfully lead the team next year throughout the season. To Kevin Hudak, I leave you a bucket of Top Flites since we all know you're going to need them. I also leave you my senior parking spot so you have somewhere to legally park now. To Henry Craig, I leave you an extra year of high school just because I can. And to make up for that, I leave you any extra Flyers tickets I get. To Jack Benedetto, I leave you my upperclassman privileges for all that you helped me with. To Nick Covis, I leave you all of my accounting notes so that you can pass accounting 3. To Connor McCabe, I leave you my super soaker to use for senior assassin next year. To my friends in Young-life, I leave you the great times you are going to have at Winter Weekend and Summer camp. To the boys in DECA, I leave you my legacy with hopes to continue the tradition of going to Nattys. Thank you to everyone that I have had the privilege to get to know these past four years!

Erin Anderman

My Favorite Memory: food

My Senior Will: marissa

Gavin Dempsey

My Favorite Memory: my favorite memory was breaking a light in gym class

My Senior Will: to drew munro I leave a broken Jbl speaker, and a setup

Moira Hill

My Favorite Memory: When Chuck and I got out of the parking spot

My Senior Will: To Nadia I leave the spot of co-president of the Art Honors Society. To Will and Michael I leave all the art supplies I left in Mrs. Bryan's room by accident. To Jason I leave you nothing. To all underclassmen I leave you the wisdom to never apply for a job at CVS Pharmacy

Evan Starr

My Favorite Memory: The last supper

My Senior Will: To Ava, take care of Loki and all my stuff while I'm away. To Shelby and John, I leave you the duty of making Diehl's job just a little bit harder. To Jade, I leave you my obsessive Spotify habits and movie collection. Bri and Will, stay as unpredictable as ever. To everyone I didn't leave a specific thing to, you may all fight over the key to the fourth floor pool. Oh and Diehl, I see you editing this, fix your Posture!

Sydney Cirincione

My Favorite Memory: being stupid with friends

My Senior Will: To Stephanie I leave you all of the unfinished work I never completed (take care of that for me pls) I also leave you my lash glue. To Yerilez, I leave you a sharpie to put the L on Mr. Byrd's head. To my wonderful cousin Nate, I leave you the family legacy, (make me proud), and I leave you my elevator key.

Netta Ray

My Favorite Memory: going to tech having fun with the kids on the bus

My Senior Will: To my little sis, I leave my reputation please whatever you please try to leave it intact. To my bestie Myrah, I leave our memories of this place her to rest hopefully one day we can come back and laugh

Daniella Barz

My Favorite Memory: football games and senior homecoming

My Senior Will: To my sister Jackie, I am leaving you with my car that I drive (you're welcome)... try not to miss me too much. to my very younger sister Jenna I leave you the ability to annoy Jackie to take you to starbucks. Inaijah I am leaving you with my parking spot so no one has to hear you complain about the walk to the J lot ever again. Sinnae, I am giving you my Luck for your senior year because your gonna need it. Avery, I am leaving you with my ability to pass spanish somehow . Lastly, I wish the underclassmen success and I just want to wish my class off 22 good luck with their futures!!

Cameron Marvel

My Favorite Memory: Marching band

My Senior Will: To every teacher at Rustin, I leave you a formal apology for sharply increasing your willingness to retire early. And to the pit, I leave some more sleep. It was entrusted to me two years ago and I'm sure you guys will keep it going. And to Ben, Nate, Lance, Evan, and Jason, we all know you guys are secretly in 9th grade. You can give up the act.

Kenny DiUlio

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory is either the golf cart incident in Marching Band or absolutely sobbing at the Beauty and the Beast Cast Party

My Senior Will: Ok...to Alana I leave an infinite pass to get out of all 1st period Choir SGI's, to Kerry and Joss I leave a bottle of Siracha and a fire extinguisher, To reilly I leave the Jazz Lab Saxophone Section, to Kit and Shriya I leave all the love in the world and the good vibez for Marching Band, to Lena I leave our 3 am manic episodes, permanently braided hair, my entire closet, and THAT GREY STUUUUUFF, to Sierra I leave my entire heart and tear reppelent (love you), to Corinne I leave my position of annoying byerly and my condolences and prayers for being converted into a Sopranno, to Madi I leave our in sync theater chants (you*yourself???), to Nora I leave all the morning hugs you'll ever need, to Will I leave my style/aesthetic and my admiration for your artistic skills for the theater T-shirts, to Dean I leave all the flannels Bella Swan has to offer and a lifesize cut out of Elizabeth Olsen, to Darby I leave my fit compliments and hugs, to sky I leave my continued blame of you :, to John I leave the chill vibes and swag that theater needs, to Car I leave ALLL the FUN in the world with the paint next year, to Mel I leave PASSION and my water proof eyeliner, to both Car and Mel I leave the stage (Good luck :) <3), to Natalie I leave the Woodwinds and the responsibility of bugging shoremount with Build me up Buttercup in the stands, to all my children (you know who you are) I leave you my exerieence and guidance for the rest of your highschool experience, to Sophia I leave the entire Rustin Music Department and my eternal love and support, to Diehl I leave you your US Postal box and a singular leaf from my class plant (thx for being the best English teacher <3), to Mrs. Shafman I leave my passion and love for this music department, to Shoremount I leave Peggy and my constant presence in your brain when you hear Build Me Up Buttercup, to Byerly I leave a whisk, a pound of splenda, and my funeral planning for my soul that was sold to you :)

Michael Fleury

My Favorite Memory: Playing Lacrosse, football games, xbox during online school

My Senior Will: To Marek Seaman, I leave chicken sammy reviews. To Jakey Jackson, I leave you the masteries of the bounce shot. To Aaron Cotter, I leave you the best mullet on the team. To Nate Anzideo, I leave you gym class.

Zack Cummings

My Favorite Memory: 10th grade English class

My Senior Will: To Jake Demarco I leave every Rustin bathroom may you have the all knowing knowledge of what you might encounter in there I also leave my other ACL and handicap spot too you please do well with these things. To J.J. I leave Mr Harrison's class and the duty of being the babysitter for Lope and Timmy and finally to Ryan Buckles I leave to you cafeteria food take that as you will.

Lindsay Krafchick

My Favorite Memory: Friday night football games and RGS home night games

My Senior Will: To Jordyn, I leave my car for you to take your daily Starbucks trips. I'll also let you have the clothes I don't take to college because I know you will take them anyways. To Sarah J, I leave our carpool. Make sure to get Jordyn to practice and play Mirrors and some Cardi B for Brienna and I. Gonna miss you guys :(

Taylor Krafchick

My Favorite Memory: Absolutely destroying Davis Patel in our four year game of who is academically superior

My Senior Will: To Maggie Ricciuti, I leave you the entire defensive line on RFH... I know you will make me proud. To both Sam Ward and Grace Walsh, I leave possession of the ball cart and leadership in the center of the field. Good luck in future seasons! To Gayatri Venkatesan and Ann Semeao, I leave my various binders, and cheat sheets for Science Olympiad, may you use them wisely. To Lexi Harrison, I leave the mantle of leadership for Envirothon, continue the legacy better than Ella and I ever could and try to have more than four practices in the year. To Jordyn, I leave my impeccable academic legacy, intelligence, and judgement, let's be honest you'll need it. I also leave my Acura, Lindsay's car will definitely not make it through all of your years in high school. Take care of Hope and Maverick for me.

Reagan Weldon Peri

My Favorite Memory: When I fell in a hole

My Senior Will: To the underclassmen members of the Academic Team, I leave you my tug-of-war skills so that you can beat the Science Olympiad team at the Pep Rally next year. I ask that, in my honor, you learn how to fill out the seating chart correctly. To the Fashion Club, I leave NurtiGrain bars and Belvitas for next year. I leave my position as President to Campbell Eaton. To Sophia Barraza, Sami Silver, and Ainsley Eaton, I leave my "first priority." I also leave you with the best work of art I ever made: the Abraham Lincoln hand turkey. To Bobby Ristine, I leave lots of future viewings of Interstellar, onions to carry around the halls of Rustin, my (very real) nickname of "Mafia Ball," and the knowledge that neither France nor Upton Sinclair are cities. To Bri Beadle, I leave a structurally sound mailbox and lots of bendy straws from the Dollar Tree to drink up the tsunami we're going to have on November 11th. To Emma Beinlich and Ava Wilcox, I leave all the carrot sticks in the lights, and good "Garden Salad w/ Egg." To Shelby (B)oyle, I leave "everything," as you asked, and a raw chicken breast. To Jade McMakin, thank you for teaching me to pronounce "GIF." I also leave you, Shelby, Ava Beasley, and Bobby with Paul Dano; "Jesus was wrong." To Charlotte Ruth, I leave unlimited frogs and great books. To Michael O'Malley, I leave the obliterated pumpkin pie from Wegman's. Thank you to all the wonderful friends and teachers that made these four years so great! Good luck to everyone in the class of 2022 -- "swerve and curve!"

Lily O'Neil

My Favorite Memory: Falling off the stage and getting a concussion during Seussical!

My Senior Will: To Car, I give the rest of my sanity and becoming CEO of the baby roller To Mel, annoying people with the baby hammer, putting the boys are back on every crew playlist ever! To Savannah, my love for Crew ball Dean, my very manly muscles {Only condition you actually have to go to late nights + do work} To the rest of the stage crew, I give you the ability to laugh at byerly's wrath and to have the patience to wait for two hours while byerly is distracted To Cast, i give the ability to not always be such a cast and to make sure all of the new people feel welcome! To Corinne, my authority, aka my ability to yell To Luke, you get my kandkles To Skye, my super secret stash of goldfish To Sophia, the ability to play with byerlys slinkies, and you must say Shukalou to Band man whenever you see him! To Madi, my burger king kidz bop CD from 2012 For Lena, the rest of my field hockey skills To Abby, my 360 levels in Sausage 3D And Will, You only get Nipples and dead caterpillars

Holly Bradley

My Favorite Memory: Arscott Classes

My Senior Will: To Arscott, I leave you what is left of my sanity and a message that is hidden in the Sculpture room :)

Ryan Jackson

My Favorite Memory: Beating Owen J. Roberts in the first round of districts for soccer, and completing our season 10-0 at home

My Senior Will: To Scottie, Everett, Andy, Richard, and Danny, I leave you the back line. To McGonagle, Pelkow, Scottie, and Evan, I leave you the future of Rustin soccer. To Calvin, I leave you the responsibility of cussing out the refs, and getting yellow cards. To all of Rustin soccer, cherish your time on the field because it will be gone before you know it. To Danny and Robert, I leave you the tennis team and 1st doubles. To Rowan (if you ever get healthy) and Jack, I leave you the future of Rustin tennis.

Madison Battersby

My Favorite Memory: Homecoming week and Rustin basketball/ lacrosse seasons.

My Senior Will: To my sister, Ella, I leave you my keys to take the car during lunch and whatever clothes I don't bring with me (you're welcome). To Marek, I leave you my senior lot parking spot so you don't have to keep scraping off those stickers. To Ava Panetta, I leave you the biggest hug and endless trips to McDonald's. To Lola, I leave you the RGL defense and full field clears. To Elizabeth, I leave you all my commentary at lacrosse practice when we were matched up during 7s. To Laine, I leave you my basketball wisdom during the 2v2 warm-up (since we all know I carried). McGurks- never forget how good pizza and ranch is late at night and make millions of chicken nuggets. To Maura, I leave you Ella. Goodluck. To Hannah, I leave you the great responsibility of getting the water at bball. To Lauren, I leave you the role of team hair braider. Make sure you get to the locker room nice and early to make your rounds. To Gavin and Roman, I leave you Saturday nights working at Fellinis. To Mack, Jake, and Toni, I leave you, Marek. Keep him company and don't be too stupid-- Please.

Sophia Roselli

My Favorite Memory: football games

My Senior Will: To my brother Shawn, I leave you my loud, outgoing, reputation and legacy that I left at Rustin. When my teachers ask, make sure not to say no to being my brother...More importantly though, I leave you the responsibility to entertain and take care of Prince. To Mary Hayes, I leave you my place in DECA, make it to nationals next year!!! And, to Izzie Mintz, I leave you my parking spot once you get your license. I already know you will not want to walk the JLOT walk.

Jayden Clark

My Favorite Memory: Spike the rock 2021, it was the first time I got to spend a whole school day with all my friends from all the grades and the activity's were fun...I'll never forget the sunburn I got on my shoulders from that day, probably should have put on some sun-screen.

My Senior Will: To one of my best friends Nadia Angelucci aka Poop, i leave you my position of driving everyone around after school. Thanks for all our after school car rides, dog walks and Bruno mars singalongs. To another one of my best friends Rylin Bresset aka Ryy Ryy I leave you my special parking spot cause your very "special"... thanks for breaking my car speakers with Eminem all our Late night Philly drives. To Juan Munoz I leave you my math skills which aren't much better then yours... to Liam McFarland even though I don't use the Rustin gym anymore i leave you the 50lb dumbbells to get those gains. To Zainu Abass I leave you with my distaste of fortnite so you finally stop playing it and to David Moen I leave you my locker which I never found so have fun looking for that!

Collin Stevens

My Favorite Memory: Long runs

My Senior Will: To Jason Canterino, I leave my Elden Ring skills and a single mini milky bar. It's not much but it's something. To Nate Kirkland, I leave Depaul, to make sure your don't get injured next year. To Liam Stigora, I leave the 3200, have fun. To Nick Long, I leave car keys, so the two toned drip will never be stolen. To Shawn Roselli, I leave my Honda CRV to drive you home from practice. To George Harkins, I leave a shirt to wear on runs. To Adam Mosier, I leave the future of the track team. To CJ McDermott, I leave my State qualifying timer skills, use them wisely. To Alex Kosmidis, I leave you the basketball Dimitri gave me. To Jace Orsini, I leave nothing. To the Period 6, Latin 4 class, I leave all my latin knowledge. To Ben Malley, I leave my basketball skills. Lastly, to the boys distance team... and Jeff Scali, I leave all of you my speed, and the will to continue to work hard and push your PR's to the best they can possibly be.

Grace Doyle

My Favorite Memory: Using the special ed classrooms and Hammond's counter to avoid responsibilities. Smith's class with the OG squad.

My Senior Will: To my mini me, Abby Demaioribus, I leave you my corner in A227. Use it wisely, and NEVER go to gym class. To Paige Bryan, I leave you Best Buddies. Make me proud and never let anyone forget a friendship update. To Ella Hambleton and Peyton Hindman, I leave you the bocce team. Bring home the state chip, and never trust hendy. To Riss Bachman, I leave you face-painting everyone at the field trips. Don't hold back. To Malia and Hudson Sunderlin, I leave you Bridget and Josh. Never forget to humble them. To Lukas Bula, I singlehandedly put the fate of Rustin Young Life in your hands. Be a good campaigner kid. To Ella Gentile, Sam Ward, Tess Nearhoof, Cate Van Riet, and Kylie Cebul, I leave you early mornings at starbucks. May the chocolate croissants be in abundance and the butter fully stocked. To Jason Canterino, I leave you fat naps in astronomy class. Caroline Rendell, ALWAYS run away from the boys that are in love with you. If they try to give you a spoon, give them a knife. To Mr. Blankenhagen, I leave you ample time to google Belize and state dogs. Mr. Smith, I leave you dunkin trips and my utmost thanks for passing Paris, Cameron, Braydon, and I in chemistry when all we did was sing Shakira. Mrs. McVeigh, I leave you a sincere apology for the Best Buddies pretzel money I lost in the Giant parking lot and never told you about. To Mrs. Hammond, I leave you nothing but the pain and suffering you will feel after you are unable to watch me complain on your floor every day. Please kick everyone out of your classroom. You could never do it with us, but no one is worthy of fifth period with you.

Tom Le

My Favorite Memory: Freshman Year Districts XC Race

My Senior Will: You want my treasure, you can have it! I left everything I gathered together in one place. Now you'll just have to find it!

Alexys McClain

My Favorite Memory: Football Games, Spike the Rock, and Lax games under the lights!

My Senior Will: To David and Lauren, I leave you the spot of the favorite child! Don't fight too hard. To Marissa I leave you the student section BE LOUD!!, endless talks with Hammond take her advice, and a spot in my dorm please come visit. To Lola I leave you Spike the Rock, start planning NOW, and the voice on defense. To Paige and Sam, I leave you the stretching order for track...I will never be able to memorize it. To Maddie, Bri, Hannah, Nadia, and Ellie I leave you another trip to state. I'll be there to cheer...again. To McGurk and Jordyn, I leave the draw circle, don't forget to ask for a reset #42 @McGurk. To Lauren I leave you the ball bucket, take care of it for me. To Ava Panetta I leave a season supply of BANG!! To KB I leave you interceptions on defense. To Marley I leave you David, no return policy.

To Izzie I leave the job of pregame hype up! To RGL I leave you a reminder to bring your sneakers every day, you never know when a campus run is coming and Sparta's! To Laine I leave you the title of Drexel Commit, ROLL DRAGS! To Kaylee I leave you DePaol check in on him every day! To Lily I leave you Mrs. Nee. To all my XC, indoor track, and RGL teammates I leave you hard work every day and pushing yourself to be the best!

Ryan D'Ariano

My Favorite Memory: My favorite high school memories were winning ChesMonts as a team during my senior year, homecoming, prom, and coming in the top 15 at the PIAA Golf State Championship twice.

My Senior Will: To Connor McCabe, I leave you my parking spot in the senior lot, my incomparable physique, and my luscious locks. To Colin Wright, I leave you my unmatched athleticism. To Sidney Sagullo, I leave you, my calculator. To Avani Kuders, I leave you my favorite red hat and all my math notes. To Matt Connell, I leave you my basketball abilities. To Tristan Hosley, I leave you my motto on life, "My Body, My Choice"; use it wisely. To Samantha Founds, I leave you a gas bill for all the car rides home. To Michael LaRosa, I leave you my first-period vents about the gas prices, the southern border, and inflation. To Brody Bump, Noah Kitabjian, Logan Marafino, Timmy Nearhoof, and Rocco Falgiatore, I leave you my knowledge in Woodshop, my supervising abilities, my political beliefs, my comebacks, and my welding talents. To Roman Seaman and Gavin Seaman, I leave you my undisputed lady's man tendencies. To Nadia Angelucci, I leave you my manual of jokes and my relentless pursuit to make fun of others in a joking manner. To Hudson Sunderlin, I leave you my mastery of irritating Coach A and my model appearance. To Chloe Boucher and Fiona Simcox, I leave you my unsolicited opinions during lunch. To Mr. Hoesch, Mr. Harkins, and Mr. Hutchinson, I leave you my fantastically scripted takes on current events. To Mr. Weychert, I leave you with the New York Giants 4 Super Bowl Championships. To Sam Feeney, I leave you my Rustin Golf Legacy; hopefully one day you can match my success. To Evan Rydel, I leave you with my clearly superior golf skills. To Kevin Hudak, I leave you my clubhead speed and my short game. To Jack Benedetto, I leave you my work position at the Giant. To Nick Linkchorst, Cameron Benedetto, and Colin Keiser, I leave you my strength in the weight room and gigantic muscles. To Sophia DeSantis, I leave you my leadership role on the golf team. To all of Rustin's staff, I leave you with a thank you for a great four years. To the entire Rustin Golf Team as a whole, I leave you with my sincere good luck and well wishes in the upcoming years and the torch has officially been passed!

Dimitri Kosmidis

My Favorite Memory: Winning the Ches-Mont League senior year for track

My Senior Will: To Nate Kirkland, I leave my track leadership. To Shawn Roselli, I leave my XC leadership and speed. To George Harkins, I leave my speed. To my little brother Alex Kosmidis, I leave my ego. To Jason Canterino, I leave him a third monitor in addition to the two he already has. To Yanni Makris, I leave the legacy of speedy Greeks. To Jace Orsini, I leave nothing. To Mikayla Bliss, I leave Hayden Bliss' Legacy treat it well. Finally to Brody Bump, I leave Braydon's antenna.

Tony Koustourlis

My Favorite Memory: Becoming a Gimkit billionaire--several times. Oh yeah and getting demolished on the debate team

My Senior Will: To Leo Le I bestow my Calculus BC notes. They are very big and heavy and just a blast to look through. May your calculus experience be better than mine by one-thousandfold. And to Mr. Byrd I bestow my underground chocolate milk stash. May your days be as sweet, and less artificial, than the milk. And to Herr Taglang, with great honor, I bestow the secret Gimkit formula for success. May the fiat Euros fill your coffers. On second thought I'm not sure how much of this senior will will get to where it should go since inheritance tax is pretty hefty. Sorry Leo, the government might take the chapter on improper integrals as tax.

Mark Yankanich

My Favorite Memory: Freshman year lunch and annoying Mr. Marano all senior year.

My Senior Will: To all of the underclassmen, I leave to you all the Mr. Richard speeches, all the Mr. Burke jokes, all the Mr. Haid powerpoints, and all the good times to come!

Sammy Faux

My Favorite Memory: pep rallies, hoco, football games, spike the rock, prom

My Senior Will: To my little brother, I leave you the school store and my good spirits to deal with everyone who comes and goes. I also leave you with my motivation to do school work and the confidence to keep pushing through your remaining school days.

Austin Maguire

My Favorite Memory: Being an APT student and working at the school store

My Senior Will: To my sister, Hollyn, I want to leave you with all the opportunities for this experience. Spend this time to the fullest. Work hard, but live care-free. You have such an amazing spirit and high school is the perfect time to refine yourself. You don't need to have answers for every little detail, but you should be present for the whole journey. I love you and you are going to do great. To Mr. Brady, Mrs. Vitello, and Mrs. Kuesel, thank you for the endless amounts of patience, love, and care you have poured into my life. I am honored that you have each had such an amazing impact on my life, and I'm proud to be able to call myself a student of yours. Thank you for putting yourself out on a line everyday to help those in need of love. Your work saves lives. To Lauren, Olivia, Geo, and the other younger and future generations of APT students, I want to leave you as much strength and encouragement as I can. I am very familiar with the painful paths that you may be experiencing in your life right now. This pain does not go away overnight, but I can promise you that I have experienced the relief that I desired so desperately when I was just like you. We have the power to make ourselves good people that have come out of unfortunate circumstances. There is so much passion and love in all of you, and regardless of whatever pain you may face right now, you have so much time to be triumphant. I love you all, and I'm proud and honored to be a big APT sister.

Ariana Zablah

My Favorite Memory: marching band and being part of the musical

My Senior Will: To my fellow band members Min , Sophia , Emily & Nick , I leave my dearest and beloved Oliver. Please make sure his hammers are always inside “the other one”. To Sophia , I leave our “you belong with me” fantasy. Min & Emily I leave absolutely no monsters for you , but I do leave some jolly rancher’s. Melanie (aka genius baby) I leave my knowledge , use it well. To Lena , Sieira, Corinne , Will , Maddie and Luke , I leave the choir room , please don’t let any theater kid join choir ! To Nora , I leave the stress of Ap Physics. To Skye Barry I leave no peros , absolutely none!! Alana , I pass down the charge of the soprano 2s to you. Olivia , I leave my first row seat in the soprano section to you. Ingrid , I leave a school map to you so may guide other students too. Arnav and Dean , i leave all of my Spanish to you. To Roy Covey I leave my very short height. To Aubrey Hull , I leave the pretties of gowns and non slippy nude heels.

Nora Batchelor

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory during high school were the pep rally's and spike the rock.

My Senior Will: To my brother Danny, I leave Timmy and the late night pickups he'll need, along with the neighborhoods' inability to be ontime to school. To Daniel Scoffone I leave you all my math notes- good luck with your first math class without me. To Lauren Supplee I leave my 2-years worth of auditorium parking so you don't have to text me if i'll be coming back. And to Ava Panetta and all the RGT girls I leave the job of calling out Billy everytime he says things he should not be saying on the courts.

Laney Costin

My Favorite Memory: RGB and Spike the Rock

My Senior Will; To Lola Flynn, I leave you in charge of chanting “team on three” in the RGB huddles - hopefully you are louder than me. Make sure to also keep up your reputation as DJ Lola (I expect some more dance moves). To Maura Evangelista, I leave you our car rides after practices to go get food. Thanks for being my personal uber. To Laine McGurk, I leave you my role as lacrosse manager. Don't have too much fun taking stats without me. I also leave you in charge of coming up with gameday quotes for basketball to keep everyone hype. To Ava Panetta, I leave you my seat on the back of the bus for away games. Be prepared for the bumpy rides. To Elizabeth McGurk, I leave you the job of playing defense and locking down players. If you need a water break, no you don't. To Raelyn Loper and Lacey McKenna, I leave you my attitude. Give it to Coach Tina for me. To Ella Battersby, I leave you to lead the post players in winning the three point shooting contests, you got it. To Hannah Betchyk (aka Hannager), I leave you the Rustin Girls Basketball Team. I know you'll be able to keep everyone in line.

Gianna LaRosa

My Favorite Memory: tennis and basketball season

My Senior Will: To Maura Evangelista, I leave you my nonexistent calc skills and I hope that stat treats you better next year. To Ava Panetta, Molly, Lily, Sophia, Nikki, and I leave you the responsibility of keeping RGT fun and annoying Coach. To Lola Flynn, I leave you 3rd period study hall and my parking spot so you won't have to keep searching the senior lot for an empty one. To Laine McGurk, I leave you my cardboard tree that I made in sculpture. Take good care of her and don't let Stephen touch her. To Elizabeth McGurk, I leave you the role of meowing at practice. If you don't, I'll be disappointed. To Raelyn Loper, I leave you my amazing drawing skills and the responsibility of drawing portraits of everyone on the locker room white board. To Hannah Betchyk, Brigid, Maddy, and I leave you the responsibility of keeping the RGB bench as loud and as entertaining as it was this year. To Riley Stackhouse, I leave you the green team and the responsibility of making sure we continue to win every Reindeer Games. Lastly, to Stephen Bucci, I leave you my seat in sculpture. I hope sitting in my seat allows you to fully become a part of the table, but only if you promise to stop saying "who cares."

Brigid Durant

My Favorite Memory: Spike the Rock, FNL, RGB & RGL

My Senior Will: To Mrs. Ava Panetta I leave you the gift of Tom Durant because we all know he already likes you better than me and someone needs to make sure he doesn't fall asleep mid-conversation again. To NickyNick I leave you the basement, nobody in my room, especially my bed and if you break anything you're done. To Shev I leave you the sauna please don't sit on the couch if you're sweaty. To Lola Flynn I leave you the responsibility of running errands for RGB and I also leave you spike the rock, please help more than I did. To Ella Battersby I leave you the leftover miles on the Tucson, the beach trips will never be topped. To Maura Evangelista I leave you the sideline closest to DePaul's in the gym, don't do ladders or sprints while practice is in session. To Laine McGurk I leave you the shaka, use it wisely. To Elizabeth McGurk I leave you five pounds of dino nugs, sauces necessary. To Lauren Supplee I leave you and only you rights to my bed in the basement, get good sleep. To Hannager Betchyk I leave you a deck of cards, keep the game of mafia alive in RGB. To Tessa Amen I leave you my ten minutes a day with Mia, keep her in check for me. To Sarah Johnston I leave you a spot in me and Katie's dorm room, please visit often its necessary. To Izzie Mintz I leave you the crease, even though you already own it. To Jordan Kraftcheck I leave you the job of making sound effects during practice, especially when you BTB. To Lacie McKenna I leave you Ava Panetta she's a pretty cool gal. To Marek Seaman I leave you my broken air fryer and carpet cleaner. To Jack and Grace O'Hora I leave you the Durant reputation in Rustin, don't go to Penn State. To all my RGL girls I leave you Sloan, let her be a distraction, she's adorable. To Rustin I leave you all the love in the world, you made high school so special and I will miss you dearly.

Danielle DeMichelle

My Favorite Memory: Spirit week/football games

My Senior Will: To my sister Gia, I leave you the role of being the favorite child. I know I'm a hard act to follow but I'm sure you will suffice. I'm also leaving you my closet. I know you would have stolen my clothes regardless, but I thought I'd make it official. Enjoy the rest of high school! To the sturdies, I leave you my basement so you will actually have a place to hangout. Have fun next year, but not too much fun. We won't be home to bail you out of jail.

Lily Sousa

My Favorite Memory: Spirit week

My Senior Will: To my sister, Marley I leave you my parking spot right by the tennis courts so you can look after the team for me. To Tatum mcguinn I leave you the job of looking after your sister when I can't fly home. Ps, no more holes in the wall please. To the sturdys I leave you the keys to the mini van hopefully it will be comfortable to sleep in. To marek I leave you the responsibility of being the only cosine left in west chester. keep being the family comedian and please look after sloan for me!

Mya Pierce

My Favorite Memory: My favorite highschool memory is the one year of dive team that me and my friends did. Highly recommend just don't eat soup and slushies in the locker room before practice.

My Senior Will: To my cousin Ava I leave you all the fam dinners I won't make it too. I also leave you, Lola, Elizabeth, Lauren and ESPECIALLY the manager Laine the lacrosse team be nice to the freshman! To my brother Luke I leave you the burning hatred all your future teachers will have for you! (don't tell them i'm your sister) To the sturdies I leave you nothing but a pool table to griddy around, appreciate it! To Marek I leave you 4th period chic breakfast. And to all of you have so much fun next year but don't be stupid!

Maggie Hyland

My Favorite Memory: Friday football games

My Senior Will: To Lauren supplee, I leave you as official cheer captain of the volleyball team. I also leave you some feet coordination. Try to stay off the ground next year. To the rest of the rolleyball girls I leave you E&A's and lion mode. Look hot play hot. To the sturdies, I leave you guys an infinite Uber account and a tent. To the RGL defense, good luck to whoever is the next zip recruiter.

Elle Slachta

My Favorite Memory: Friday night football games

My Senior Will: To Lola, Lauren and AP I leave you to protect the defense of rustin lacrosse, you know what to do. To Elizabeth and Kaylee, I leave you long car rides to Dynasty practice at GA. To RGL, I leave you the end line, take care of it. And to my little sister Grace I leave you Mick (never forget to humble him), Tantini Sundays and maybe my car, probably not though;

Sammi Raimondo

My Favorite Memory: Performing at pep rally with the dance team

My Senior Will: To Rustin Dance team, i leave you my booty shorts.. jk already burned them. I leave Ainsley Eaton and Kailey Ward my important job of pep talks and pinkies before games, NEVER forget the pinkies;) And to Ella, I leave you my big shoes to fill. You're welcome, the math teachers will love you just by your last name!

Maegan Quinn

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory during highschool was soccer season and Friday night football games with my best friends.

My Senior Will: To Emily D’Amico I leave you 17 years worth of the best memories, oh and $100 bucks for the bet we both know I’m gonna loose. To Jenn Ely I leave you my tail light cover from that one pole and I leave you the responsibility of driving a freshman. To Jordyn Krafchick I leave you the moldy pjs fries found at practice and Lindsay’s amazing singing #ripthecarpool To Jackie Chapman I leave you my parking spot, I know how much you hate the j lot walk. To Rgs I leave you Winnie and his pre game pep talks, please take care of him.

Patrick Gleason

My Favorite Memory: Junior prom

My Senior Will: To Gina I leave you this picture we took at junior prom

Ella Harrison

My Favorite Memory: Spirit weeks, student council chaos, Spike the Rock, and the good times on the field and the court with my teammates.

My Senior Will: To Maggie, Sam, and Hannah I leave the RFH defense. To Makayla and Sienna I leave the ScoopsXRFH crew. To Maura I leave the elbow spot on Duke and to the rest of RGB our 2022 Chesmont hardware: keep being the coolest team at Rustin. To RGL, I leave the worst goggle tans but best team dinners by far. To my sister Lexi I leave the Mazdarati, Envirothon club, and Starbucks cups. While I know your parking skills will never rival mine, I am sure you will use the car to be more punctual than I ever was. Bring another Envirothon trophy home for Mr. Smith’s room and carry on the completely superfluous tradition of using a Starbucks cup every day. Water bottles are overrated. To Lexi and Kailey both, I leave the three-season sport legacy and ultimate carpool: keep representing.

Becca Grealy

My Favorite Memory: Spike the Rock

My Senior Will: To my brother, I leave mom's car and the title of being the only child. To Jane Nelson, I leave the throw up cups on the sideline. To Elyssa Jung, Grace Mitchell, and Kylie Root, I will leave the bench that everyone blamed #benchbuddies4L. To Kelly Fricker and Victoria Puzangara, I leave the excitement of completing E&As and my brother to look out for. To Lara Rodgers, I leave the rest of your shuttle runs and your ankles. To Caelia and Peter, I leave the best class ever, B302. I hope you guys passed. To Kayla, I leave Francis Bradbury and all the baseball guys.

Chris Watson

My Favorite Memory: Piston Cup?

My Senior Will: To Bobby Vitullo, I leave the Kenyattans. Use it well. Also, the Wreck it Ralph test. To Jason Canterino, I leave the .4% more that I got on a test. Also, 2 tickets to Sonic the Hedgehog 3. To Liam Stigora, I leave the Watson curse. To Nate Kirkland, I leave the 1 second that I need to make Chesmonts. (You won't need it because you will be in anyway) To Shawn Roselli, I leave my looks since we look the same already (according to Jeff). To George Harkins, I leave the good parts of the Watson legacy. To Nick Piccone, I leave the duck shoes. To Ian Chi, I leave vengeance. To Nick Long, I leave my undying support for you to pass the Wreck it Ralph test.

Cassidy McHugh

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory during high school was my Consumer and Green Chem class with Mr. Philibin where I met my best friend and because it was such a small and fun class.

My Senior Will: To William Bonk, I leave my graceful bowling skills. I know how desperately you need to improve. I also leave you the patience I began to lose during fall show. I want you to know you are the hardest person for me to leave. To Madi, I gift you the many little animals from rams diner that I keep in my car. Rinny Atwell, you get my entire heart and the raise we both deserve at duck. John Sommerfield... idk I'll leave you a baseball hat, you wear those a lot, alongside the terrible jokes we make during Smith presentations. Lena Cugini, you receive one smooch on the cheek. Abby Schlack, my daughter, my parking spot since I can no longer drive you home. Car, I give you two wooden roses. Sieira Dunne I leave you the curling iron I spent many hours doing your hair for shows with. Jason Canterino.... idk you're a little annoying so nothing. I tried to pass you down a girlfriend but I don't hate any of my friends that much. To Byerly, my watergun collection to make up for the one stolen by your foreign exchange student. to Molly Winfield, please pass on the legacy of the smear and shake. Our dance moves will live far longer than either of us. Throw a model un rager in my memory. Finnean Martino, i leave you to make fun of everyone else at duck for me. please do not quit, I will come back for holidays. To the rest of my theatre children, I will be front seat for every one of your shows, don't worry.

Etienne Dobbs

My Favorite Memory: Producing different films for my video production class!

My Senior Will: To Malia Sunderlin, I leave you with the honor of bugging Diehl for me. Make him laugh with our ridiculous films in video production. But don't get on his bad side or that beard will be the end of it. To Ella Hambleton and Lainey Lacey, I leave my banger meals I make in cooking with Dredge but also take care of our Dredge she's one of the best here at Rustin <3. And to all the underclassman who have Burke for History, I leave you all the replacement of his favorite student :')

Aiden Stromberg

My Favorite Memory: Jamestown, New York tournament

My Senior Will: To Brady Founds, Dom Dalessandro, Drew Munro and Owen Stromberg, I leave you the ability to have sty

Josh Hartman

My Favorite Memory: throwing a orange at the earth day poster the little knights made

My Senior Will: To Hutch the best teacher ive had I leave u my great humor and my brutal slanderous Comments. To Billy tigue i leave you my little knowledge i have. My guy timmy nearhoof i leave u my mistchivous behavior. My Great Teacher Marano i leave u My constant Latness to class and great jokes. And my dear freind drew munro i leave u my nose and a nice working speaker

Skylar Quester

My Favorite Memory: Mr. Haid's Europe Trip

My Senior Will: To Kaylee Bucci, I leave you a usable car that will not break down and a parking space with no warning stickers. Please do not drive this car into another river. I also leave you the continuous responsibility to host the best parties. To Lauren Cramutola, I leave you the role as APT big sis and the one who will keep Ms. V sane. To Mr. Haid, I leave my everlasting presence of annoyance. To the AP bio freshman in fourth period, I leave you the fish I bought and never took care of. If you can, keep it alive. To Whitley Carey and Goldie Kayser, I leave you the fidgets located inside B318: you know what to do. And lastly, to Brooke Scheivert, I leave you the ability to get to class on time.

Tatiana Mendoza

My Favorite Memory: Winter break because every other so called break was disappointing

My Senior Will: To my brother, I leave you nothing. Goodluck.

Carly Marzano

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory is joining the lax team and making new best friends.

My Senior Will: To Ava Panetta, I leave you Brigid's house, Tom Durant, and the left side of her bed. To Lola Flynn, I leave you all the goose poop on the lax field, as well as the adventures to dairy queen. I also leave you my starting spot on defense, you need it. To Elizabeth McGurk, I leave you CCP math and plenty of hotdogs with mustard. To Laine McGurk, I leave you my humor, yours need some work. To EJ Kelley, I leave you the drive to Dunkin' Donuts on every two hour delay morning. To Tessa Amen, I leave you the responsibility of our neighborhood watch. To Izzie McIntz I leave you my stick, since it's so much better than yours.

Elliott Seymour

My Favorite Memory: XC away trips

My Senior Will: To Bobby Vitullo, I leave the eternal suffering and fiery torment of the ever restless Abyss.

Jacob Mattei

My Favorite Memory: Football season

My Senior Will: To Brandon Mattei I leave you my athletic traits

Carson Wood

My Favorite Memory: The pride and accomplishment I felt my senior year

My Senior Will: To Mr. Weychert, I leave my stir fry recipe; Since I know you like to cook. To Mr. Marano, I leave my stir fry recipe because you don't know how to cook. To Mrs. Menzel, I leave my thanks for teaching such a challenging, rewarding, and fun class that inspired me to improve myself.

Brayden Malley

My Favorite Memory: Smith's Class

My Senior Will: To Nate Kirkland, I leave the pink baton, my captainship, and my speed. To Liam Stigora, I leave nothing. To Billy Carney, I leave a coca-cola. To Mace, Brody, and Ethan, I leave Carol's antenna. To Nick Piccone, I leave the hopes that you surpass your sister. To Shawn Roselli, I leave someone else to drive you home to practice. And to Ben Malley, I leave my reputation with my teachers (don't ruin it).

Sophia DeBarberie

My Favorite Memory: Hanging out with my friends during study halls and going out to eat breakfast before 2 hour delay school days

My Senior Will: I, being of sound body and mind, leave to my younger sister a hopeful future and all the ability to smile through the hardships of school and life

Chris Canterino

My Favorite Memory: Beating Mario 3D All-Stars during online classes

My Senior Will: To Jason, I leave the car so you'll never have to drive with Braydon ever again. To Nick Piccone, I leave the speed to one day beat your sister's times. To Shawn, I leave my captainship of the xc and track teams, you'll get it eventually. To Nate I leave the hope that one day you'll get a car with four doors. To George Harkins and Liam Stigora, I leave nothing. To Nick Long, I leave a bucket of paint so you can turn your car into the three-tone drip. To Ian Chi, I leave the keys to my car so you can drive Jason to practice next year.

Ben Hutsell

My Favorite Memory: Cross country overnight trip

My Senior Will: To the cross country team I leave JV captain although none of you are really worthy. To Mr. Byrd I leave the daily chocolate milk.

Sophia Maurice

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory during my high school years was hiding ketchup packets and bothering the lunch ladies.

My Senior Will: To the freshman, I leave to you the senior hallway, with the cleanest bathrooms. don't ruin it! I leave to you the school with many immature people who will mature you into who you will become. You can survive! and to my class, Thank you for not being annoying. shout outs to - Juli-ana Gentile, Anthony O'Neal, and Autumn O'Connell! LOVE YOU GUYS!

Dani Monahan

My Favorite Memory: Meeting Maya and Zack; one who stole my seat in sophomore year chemistry and the other who did not believe me when I said I was in his grade.

My Senior Will: To my tennis buddy Sehaj, I leave to you an absurd amount of bananas, bodyarmors, and boy problems we both know we cannot deal with rationally. To Aubrey and Katelyn I leave to you my entire collection of Just Dance (to perfect those moves) and a single picture of Harry Styles respectfully. To Lauren, I leave you to an Amish Market pretzel and donut, as well as my car (only to be used for carpooling purposes). And finally to all of my senior friends (Maya, Zack, and Maeve) I leave to you my prized collection of bees, cafeteria food, my therapy bill, and a mandatory psych evaluation.

Sammi Bigioni

My Favorite Memory: Getting on Homecoming court with my bestfriend Sam Page!

My Senior Will: To Caleb, I leave you the corner in study hall. To Mallory and Kayla I leave you Giant Food Store, hopefully your not on carts as much as I was. And last to my track star Keturah, I leave you my love and support, you're going places girl!

Susanna Harnish

My Favorite Memory: AP Chemistry

My Senior Will: To Peter and Cacilia, I leave you both spot 197 to share. Please don't park each other in. I also leave you both i,iii,ii. To Kayla, I leave all the AP science classes and the study of Chemistry. I also leave you my shares in Tinder so that you can become rich and famous before you graduate so you can marry rich and become a trophy wife ASAP. Emma, I leave you each and every canvas and each art supply in the school. I hope you paint every square inch of Rustin with your beautiful artwork. I also leave you with tickets to every single TV Girl show from now to the end of time (this time buy the tour shirt on time). To Lily, I leave you with my locker. You can store all of the clothes from Lily hauls in there. And finally, to Lucy: I leave you the role of being the only child. I won't be here when you will get your drivers license or go to prom, but I also leave you my hologram so I'll pretty much be there the whole time.

Sam Page

My Favorite Memory: senior year homecoming week

My Senior Will:

To my Gracie, I leave you my plants. Please do not kill them while I am gone. To Molly Winfield, I leave you McDonalds. Don't drop any more hashbrowns. To Kailey, I leave you the hbo account...wait you already have it, nevermind. To Jack and Rowan, I leave you the tennis team. Keep rubbing nates bald head. To Mrs. Nee, stop baking. I leave you my snickerdoodle recipe.

Madison D'Ambro

My Favorite Memory: Spirit weeks, managing Rustin Baseball, and MUN/DECA trips

My Senior Will: Avani, enjoy gifted and making the best decisions on school trips. Keep it interesting. You, Grace, and Molly get note passing, fantastic outfits, and flirting through global affairs. Molly Winfield, take care of the homeroom & watch Avani please, you will be the only one to babysit when I'm not here. Soph Renaldo, I leave you the gym, you'll absolutely kill it, keep the energy up <3 Danie Cook, I'm giving you the biggest smile and wave in the hall. Coop, Chloe and I are leaving so you get your parents back. Kyle Kearns, you get the full responsibility of babysitting Owen. Crowe, breathe. Vince Hatton, I leave you the coolest cleats in Rustin history. Covis, take care of Currie. To Chase Hatton, I leave you permission to date my sister.

Gina DelGiorno

My Favorite Memory: I have way too many to pick a favorite, so I'd have to say just living my best life with my friends and teammates.

My Senior Will: For the rustin softball girls; to Gianna Lupo, I leave the nickname Gbaby from Coach A, even though I am the original ;) To Kelly Fricker, I leave my duty to lead the team with an inspirational speech before every game. I also leave you with screaming "ITS GAME DAYY" down the line. Lastly, to you Kelly, you must carry on my Chaos softball legacy at Rustin. To Olivia Garner, I leave you with being the homerun hype man. To Jocelyn Garner, I give you not only my front row spot at every Rustin Hockey game, but also my gratefulness for saving me during senior assassin #freshmanrule. To Taylor Kuhn (Tswag), I leave you with being everyone's hype man, especially your self, and making insane plays in the field. To Emily Gillis, I am leaving you with a better spine, you gotta stay on that mound girl because you are killing it. To Paige Bentley, I leave you with my sty so that your uniform actually matches at practice. To Coach King, I leave you with my patience to deal with these girls, a life time supply of body armours, and an apology for running track in eighth grade instead of playing softball. To Coach Becker, I give you my patience as well to deal with the umpires, because we are all aware of your temper. To my sister Julia, I leave you my legacy for athletics at rustin. Since you do not play softball, I shall give you my spikes for track and my spot on the bench for the powder puff game. I will pass onto you my ability to yell at the other teams at Hockey games, and a front row spot at football games (dont get trampled like I did.) I leave you with energy to stay awake during first period, being Mr.Breslins new favorite, a laptop charger, and the ability to hand work in on time (do better than I did.) Lastly, I leave you with not being an annoying freshman like I once was, please do not go through that phase.

Jeffrey Rudolph

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memories have been playing sports and being apart of the Football and Lacrosse teams.

My Senior Will: To the Junior class, I leave good luck and happiness in the future.

Ava Wittman

My Favorite Memory: I will fondly look back to Hutch's 8th period government class and its daily bickering at each other. Nothing is funnier than people!

My Senior Will: To my dear Lauren, I leave you the crumbs in the bottom of my locker. I'm not sure which number locker it is so you may just have to check all of them.

Allyson Black

My Favorite Memory: Spike the Rock, Pep Rallies, and Every Softball Season

My Senior Will: To Rustin softball I leave the best memories and to continue the success this team has made over the past years! To Paige I leave all of our car rides, the best junior gym class ever, and the best hugs! To Kelly I leave all the Energy drinks possible before a softball game! To My little brother Drew I leave Mrs. Hammond, cafeteria buffalo chicken pizza, and possibly the car lol- if your lucky. Also getting to drive Cait all over. Keep up those grades and don't wander the halls too much!! Thank you Rustin for the best 4 years ever!

Molly King

My Favorite Memory: Friday night football games and tailgates

My Senior Will: To my little sister Avery, I leave you the MINI and our basement. Please put it to good use and keep adding to "the wall." Also, just because I will not be home next year does not mean you can continue to steal my clothes. To Ainsley Eaton, I leave you Rustin DECA— make MC proud and kill it in Orlando next year! I expect a national trophy:) Finally, to Ava Panetta, I leave you RGT. Keep blessing the team with your fire aux and your beautiful smile.

Faith Helms

My Favorite Memory: Spirit weeks, half days, and weekends :))))))

My Senior Will: To my dearest Bella Mingioni, I leave you with my parking spot and the never ending urge to not go to school. I also leave you with the responsibility of keeping Hutch company when I'm not here. To my Emily Gillis, I leave you with the title of being the funny one on the team. I will also be leaving you with some better air quality, after that you'll be hitting bombs don't worry. To little Lupo, I will be leaving you with some chill pills cause, wow. Shuffy you get some too. Liv, I'm leaving you in charge to keep Joss in check, cause I can't keep doing this with her. I'm also leaving my sophomores with the responsibility of driving yourselves to Wawa, good luck. Enjoy your time here it really goes by quick, love you littles ones <3

Aidan Devlin

My Favorite Memory: Playing baseball with some of the best people I've met.

My Senior Will: To Nick Covis I leave a Delval shirt. To Drew Brown I leave capn' title. To Vince hatton I leave the title of OPP. To Dave McClain I leave the holy land behind home plate at Caps house. To Zach bingham I leave my parking spot. To Owen Crowe and Kyle Kearns I leave my 10/10 bands routine. To Cooper Speacht I leave a broken nose. To Andrew black I leave a Lawn mower to make some precise cuts over the next four.

Nikki Lee DiPillo

My Favorite Memory: Home football games!!

My Senior Will: To Lauren Supplee, I leave you my mother and tiki, make sure my mom doesn't torture him in outfits. I also leave you starbucks, make sure to get a venti strawberry acai refresher with lemonade, coffee cake, and sausage egg and cheese sandwich with no sausage everyday. To Gia Baby, can I leave you Danielle? Jk I'm definitely the nicer sister. Please invite me to family dinner's when I come home. To the sturdies, I leave you Gia.

Mia Amen

My Favorite Memory: Scoring the game winner against Dwest on their Senior Night.

My Senior Will: To my sister, Tessa I leave our morning walks to school everyday walking in so late. To Jenny and Sarah, I leave the biggest smile! I'm your guys biggest fan!!! To Ms. Keefer, Sammy, and Hope I leave all of my passion and heart for Soccer and RGS. I can't wait to watch you guys set the biggest example and tear the league apart in the 22-23 season! To Ava P, I leave the best conversations and study hall hang outs, we are forever friends! And to Lizzie, I leave number 24 you rep that number with pride! Time flies

Congratulations,
Class of 2022!

BOO

