

THE RUSTIN
HERALD'S
SENIOR EDITION
2020-2021

Rustin Admistration 2019-2020

Principal Dr. Michael Marano

Assistant Principals Mr. Corey Fields

Ms. Chrissy Eagles

Dr. Chris Lunardi

Athletic Director Mr. Devon Landgraff

Cover Art Noah Burns

Jade Burriss

Kristen Corbi

Rivers Daly

Jessica Egan

Caitlin McGonagle

Viridiana Mendoza

Riley O'Malley

Hana Rusi

Aidan Simcox

Abigail Sullivan

Ava Valente

Rustin Herald Advisor Mr. Kevin Diehl

Check us out online: <http://www.rustinherald.com>

The Class of 2021

Signatures

Signatures

Jackson Poff

My Favorite Memory: The entire EMT allied health class

My Senior Will: To Grace Plona, I leave you Kathleen from giant. Don't make her too mad or she'll make you block. To Bella walls, I leave you my aura because I won't be at ur house 24/7.

Mariana Sanchez

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory was being part of the marching band and going to our band competitions meeting other band nerds.

My Senior Will: To Shriya aka meep, please continue bugging Arscott for me and ft whenever you can during his class period in the next two years. To Kit, thank you for being a great band buddy at competition, you are an amazing friend. Good luck in marching band. PS... STOP BEING MEAN TO ME! To Emma aka Egg, I give you all the braincells I have left from the past four years of my hs experience. You will definitely will need them for junior and senior year. To Colby..... Honestly I don't know what to say, I guess I have nothing, sorry lol. To Jazz From Jazz... I FINALLY BEAT YOU IN SMASH AHAHAHAHAHA. To Rivers, even though we don't talk much to each other, you are still an amazing person. I hope to get to know you a lot more soon. To Slasher, don't let me down. Push through what you got to push through . Don't listen to others. You'll thank me in the future. To Kenneth/Penny, you are tooooooooooo tall give me some of that damn height at least 5 inches of it please. Also do all your power to annoy Kit for me. Don't be afraid to punt her out of here. To a senior from last year, even though I don't have connection to you anymore I just wanna thank you for giving me the nickname Marinara Sauce. It has now stuck with me forever.

Liz Caulfield

My Favorite Memory: Sitting in one of the large garbage cans for the sake of a theater game.

My Senior Will: To my many many junior friends, I leave my severe case of senioritis. To Mr. Shoremount, I leave the many SGI slips I know for a fact a floating around the building. To my colorguard friends, I leave an avacado. To the rest of the school, I leave all the rubber ducks we planted around freshman year.

Ethan Varquez

My Favorite Memory: When we almost got run over by a speeding fire truck outside of my English class during a fire drill.

My Senior Will: For my friend James, I leave that random Duck Dynasty plushie I got from a claw machine at the bowling alley. For Ryan, I leave possible car problems in my future. For Vince, I leave my epic mug collection of several years. For Liz, I leave Family Guy Funny Moments. For Ava and Mia, I leave. For Reese, I leave you my Joycon with drift. For Sameer, I leave my assortment of Hawaiian shirts. And for Bryce, you get nothing because you forgot me in your senior will last year.

Eimile Quinn

My Favorite Memory: DECA States

My Senior Will: To Carter Piercey, I leave MC and the Starbucks on 202. Protect both at all costs. To Brigid Durant, I leave you the month of February. Celebrate for both of us and make me proud sister!! To Sammi Bigioni, I leave you nothing, you have it all girlfriend!!! To Rustin Swim and Dive, I leave you Mr. Monaghan and all the records I couldn't set (rip lane 10). To Molly King and Sammy Klebes, I leave you DECA states thanks for being the best Distors. To Sophia Roselli and Molly King, I leave Burn. Keep going with MC and make me proud (Ill be checking Instagram). To Mya Pierce, I leave you every oppurtunity to make a joke. Stay cool!!!

Kelsey O'Leary

My Favorite Memory: Spirit weeks and football games

My Senior Will: To Jessica Andrew and Paige Barker I leave double practice car pools and my cheer mom responsibilities, take care of Horse next year! To Dani Monahan I leave chips and salsa in the back of Spanish class, Trader Joe's salsa only though. To Mr. Arscott I leave my many great ideas that failed on the first attempt of try make them happen.

Abby Stauffer

My Favorite Memory: The magic of making music whether it be in the choir room, at PMEAs or on the stage with all of the talent we have here at Rustin.

My Senior Will: To John, I leave behind my foundation and dresses for Jaqueline... use them wisely. To Kenneth, I leave you the impossible task of holding down the fort during musical (we are a challenging group... lead the guys well). To Hou, I just want you to know that I am so proud of you; how far you've come and how much you continue to grow is truly inspirational. Keep making tiktoks kid.. I need to know the tea (don't let Kenny get too famous). To Sophia Murray, I leave you with a can of cheese. You're gonna need it being the sacrificial arm-waiver next year. To Amber, I leave you with my horrible sense of humor. Maybe you'll be able to actually make my jokes funny. Autumn... Autumnnumnum... I love you my guard baby. I will come back to see the show next year! Make sure Emma puts you on rifle or I'll have a fit. And to David Youn, I leave the leadership of A Cappella to you. You're going to put together an awesome sound! To the rest of my friends in theater, PMEAs, choir, or marching band, I love you all so so much. Keep making music. You are all so extremely talented.

Lily Thompson

My Favorite Memory: Spike the Rock and Pep Rallies

My Senior Will: To my brother Mack, I leave you the title as the favorite child (we all know it's me), Miles, and the 15 minute ride to school. To Marek, Antonio, and Jake, I leave you guys my smarts, you're gonna need them to make it two more years. I also give you guys Mack, take care of him, I know he's going to be lonely without me. To Lex, I leave you all my jokes to find an underclassman that you can treat like your sister too. To Brigid, Sammy, Maggie, and Mya, I leave you guys the lacrosse team. To the McGurks, Hannah, Maura, and Lizzy, I leave you all the nights in Avalon NJ and more 12 am chats. To Lola, Lauren, and AP, I leave you the jokes on defense like I'm getting ripped tonight. And finally to RGL, I leave you the practices that never end on time, sprints, Deb & Saint, and getting yelled at (good luck to the next person they pick on)

Chloe Shlack

My Favorite Memory: late night musical rehearsals and any fall show

My Senior Will: To H. Zangwill, I leave oversharing about when you need to pee, only do it when you're deep in a scene. To Kenny Diullio and Nate Wise, I leave our backstage dance parties and forever hyping each other up. To Davis Patel, I leave my permission to go to your senior prom without me :(To Amber Thomas, I leave all of my rant sessions, I'm seriously going to miss those. To Maddie Novak, I leave our bagel obsession and being "sopranos", forever and always. To Dylan Garagozzo and Veronica McAllister, I leave all the support and hugs you two will ever need, I love you both so much! To my sophomore gals, I leave our jam sessions to the worst songs, take care of each other for me. To Will Bosch, I leave my auditorium parking spot, yes it's a year early, but it was left to me by Kale, so it only felt right. To John Sommerfield, I leave my A+ driving and all the backstage hugs you'd ever need! To Luke Dainton, I leave our adorable waves in the hall and our one time shopping spree. To my sister Abby, I leave my legacy of always playing a mom, and telling everyone about our personal lives. To everyone else I leave a smile and a hug! Take care of each other and the theater department for me!

xoxo Chloe

Sam Yaw

My Favorite Memory: RGB and Rustin Field Hockey

My Senior Will: To my sister Sydney, I leave you #5 on the field and court. Wear it proud and keep the fam tradition alive. To Addy Rivera, I leave you my senior parking spot and the job of driving Syd next year. To Christine Ditizio and Kyleigh Kuders, I leave you the Rustin Field Hockey aux with the best speaker in the game. You better not disappoint. To Tess Nearhoof, I leave you the RFH midfield, but please stop getting carded so much so that you can actually stay in the game. To the RFH seniors, make the season the best and keep pushing through the ladders. In the long run they really pay off. To Avani Kuders, Goldie Kayser, Sam Ward, and Grace Walsh, keep the seniors in line - that may just apply to Tiz and Kyleigh. To Laney Costin, Gianna LaRosa, Ella Harrison, Brigid Durant, Maddy Battersby, and Danielle DeMichele, you now run RGB. You have quite the squad to take care of next year. And please don't let Coach Tina flirt too much with the refs. Laney and Brigid you are now on DJ duty in the back of the bus and I expect you'll play some bangers (you have to play some Drake for Coach Jim). Lastly to Ava Panetta, Lola Flynn, Elizabeth McGurk, Laine McGurk, Maura Evangelista, and Hannah Betchyk, I leave you many more runs on the treadmill and half court shots, but hopefully no more zoom workouts.

Emre Arifoglu, aka EmR3

My Favorite Memory: Being lifted by the crowd back in hoco 2017

My Senior Will: To my Marching band PIT instrument, Xylo, I leave good tune and sound quality. I know I've been a little harsh on you at times, especially during marching band practice after school, especially you, Mallet. Don't let any future PIT members treat you badly and keep the resonators clear and make sure to avoid liquid getting it there as I had already almost done back when I was an immature freshman.

Ish Godbole

My Favorite Memory: Stealing all of Gellner's drawer and cabinet handles and then ordering pizza to the detention we got afterwards

My Senior Will: To Rustin, I leave my spirit in the hopes that someone else will pick up the mantle of being that guy.

Adam Waxman

My Favorite Memory: going to football games

My Senior Will: I leave my senior spot and every single assignment I ever did in high school with my sister Amanda. I leave Adam Neumeister with full control of Sports Debate Club (good luck!). Eoghan and Jackson, I leave you guys my Geoguessr account so you have an extra game. To Finally to every teacher who called me Alex: I leave you with my name: Adam

Peace out Rustin! Wax out!

Tyler Emig

My Favorite Memory: Making district for boys soccer and our bus rides home.

My Senior Will: To Daniel Scoffone, I leave my daily visits to Depaul's office. To my teammates, Daniel Scoffone, Dimitri Makris, and Ryan Seelaus, I leave the boys soccer team and the 2 in 12. To Sam Page, Carter Gilliand, Ryan Jackson and Ryan Gentile (Bean) I leave the tennis team. To Rowan Degan and the Benedetto Twins, Jack and Cam, I leave the tennis burns, hopefully Rowan will do some next year. To Grace Doyle, and Hudson and Malia Sunderlin, I leave the responsibility of taking care of Josh, Bridget and Rustin Young Life. To Ross Sumner, I leave you the legacy of "Calv Boys." To my duos partner, Kyle Pusey, I leave you my Xbox skills and echoey mic. Lastly to the freshman class, I leave you the last four years, I hope you enjoy yours as much as I did.

Gabe Borshansky

My Favorite Memory: XC overnight trip to Owego, NY my junior year.

My Senior Will: To Ben Hutsell, I leave you the role of JV XC Captain. Although you said that you were the JV Captain, I was the true JV Captain because I was a senior and have been on JV all four years. Now that you'll be a senior next year, you are now officially JV Captain. Treat the role well, as it is a very powerful role. To Rob Pileggi, Vijay Uphadhy, and AJ Chapman, I leave you the relay from the last Chesmont invitational this year. Hope this relay becomes a powerful B relay when dual meets happen again, as I see a lot of potential in you boys. To Adam Khatib, Regan DeHaven, Nick Piccone, and Siddarth Srinivasan, I leave you the boys swim team. Hype the boys up and lead them to more than 2 wins next season.

Kyra Moore

My Favorite Memory: football games

My Senior Will: To my best friend Jon seaman I leave you my strength and motivation to keep pushing forward your senior year. Good luck your gonna need it.

Lily Seagraves

My Favorite Memory: the prom proposal at spike the rock

My Senior Will: i would leave Jeffrey Rudolph as president of Best Buddies

Sofia Piccone

My Favorite Memory: Running.

My Senior Will: To my brother, I leave the car... Please be careful. To Flynn Truskett, I leave you the districts and states ribbons, car rides with Coach Monaghan, and our converse with sparkly laces. To Kate, Michelle and Lily, I leave our states relays. Hope to cheer you all on next year. To Brianna Ambrosine, I leave you the responsibility to decorate Coach Smith's bag with flowers before big meets. I also leave you Hershey's chocolate and lots of hills. To Ellie Keefer and Maddie Miller, I leave you the fridge that we brought to the picnic, the good luck cul-de-sac and lots of fast running. To Lexy Lutcavage, I leave you our pre-district traditions and pre-race dances to Shakira. I also leave you spooky hill and the team flag, use it well. To Hannah Betchyk, I leave you team trips to Taco Mar and free churros. To the distance running girls, I leave you all of my Chickn Leg shorts and Fast Braid Fridays. To all of my cross country, swimming and track teammates, I leave you more hard work and the best of luck in future races! To my viola section, I leave you the confidence to finally overpower the violins. And finally, to all the juniors, I leave you all the senior activities we didn't get to have.

Peter Murnane

My Favorite Memory: Fridays in the Weight Room after school.

My Senior Will: To Endi, Butternut, Zach, Covis, and Mom, please remember our most beloved Chuck, maybe someone will teach us to use a table saw one day. To Merek, you can have my 4-year chocolate granola addiction, my pre-workout, and complete ownership of the Djibouti Travel Agency. To Andy, I authorize full use of my blender and the late night gainz. Vince, I will leave you the cropped Dead Frog Society hoodie. And lastly, to Little Peter, I left you a surprise underneath the conveyor belt of register 14, just so you know.

Liz Ye

My Favorite Memory: Running

My Senior Will: To Brianna Ambrosine, I leave you the luck of finishing workouts early and getting to work on time, while at the same time being an absolute beast at running. I also leave you responsibility of leading the long runs and thinking of the most interesting, random, and time-passing stories to tell. To Hannah Betchyk, I leave you the responsibility of SCREAMING at people to finish their races, in hopes of a strong PR. Your throat and lungs may hurt, but it's definitely worth it. To Lexy Lutcavage, I leave you to lead core workouts, to pick flowers for Coach Smith's bag before meets, and to keep people on the positive side with your witty remarks. To Maeve Bonass and Lily Turco, I leave you the responsibility of asking Coach White the most ridiculous questions, since he will no longer be getting any from me. To my cross-country team, I leave you all the responsibility of team bonding through Chipotle, TacoMar, and Hannah Betchyk's backyard with her mom's famous meatballs on Meatball Mondays. In addition, I leave you the privilege of killing the eardrums of our coaches as we sing (or scream) on the bus back from Districts at Lehigh. To the distance track team, I leave you the tradition of DQ Blizzards after races and skittles before. I leave all runners the fun long runs on Saturday morning at the Chester Valley Trail. To Richard Park, I leave you my backbone as you will carry the majority of the second violins. Keep playing the violin and loving it, despite it being 7:30 in the morning. I wish everyone in this note an amazing time in high school, filled with football games, 11 PM breakfasts at Rams, fries from Freddy's to celebrate any Rustin-Athletics win, after-school lunches at the Amish Market, and fast and speedy 3200 races.

Jama Keefer

My Favorite Memory: Friday night football games and pep rallies

My Senior Will: First to my sister ellie, I leave you my #18 jersey, do it justice. I also leave you all of the clothes in my closet that I don't take with me to college, your welcome. Holly, I leave you my captain band, keep rgs in line for me. Kaylee, I leave you our late night trips to planet fitness, just make sure not to get home too late lol. Jaydin, I leave you my awesome parking spot and all of our laughs we've had. Also, make sure to keep Jenn in check at track next year. Lastly to rgs, I leave you Jones and the yearly scavenger hunt and make sure to MAKE PLAYOFFS!!!!

Gaven Toney

My Favorite Memory: NY Ttrip with BSU

My Senior Will: To my friend, Sky Butch, I leave you my NBA 2k Skills. To Grace Doyle, I leave my positive energy. To Paige Bryan, I leave my love for the Eagles. For Anthony Meadows, I leave my Madden Skills to you, son. To Ryan D'Ariano, I leave my love for Tiger Woods. To everyone, I leave my hard work, and positivity. Gav out.

Aubree Steczak

My Favorite Memory: Lunch

My Senior Will: To my sister Zoe, I leave you none of my procrastination or laziness. Don't be like me. Have fun next year, but not to much fun. To my boyfriend Jayden, I leave you my crypto and stonks, make me that money. Also look out for each other.

Grace Shevlin

My Favorite Memory: spirit week. period.

My Senior Will: To lola flynn and sophia Difabio, I leave you two with my vlog camera, capture every moment you have left for me ill see you on 75th. To my lil bro Dshev, I leave you with some of my street smarts, don't lose your phone while I'm gone, I also leave you with the band room and the potatoes, watch out for the camera. To Brigid Durant, I leave you with a plane ticket to my dorm you are always welcome. To Kasey collins and Molly King I leave you with encore elite wildcatz and the Collins house, thanks for growing up with me :) To Ali and Danny Mcgonagle I leave you with cait's room my parking spot, its the worst one i'm so sorry. To maura Evangelista, I leave you with the corner pieces of every puzzle. To the Rustin boys basketball team, I leave you with my managing book, I hope you find someone to replace me I'll miss you the most. Lastly, to Rustin I'm leaving you with kindness and love for this school, thank you for allowing me to meet so many great friends. I also am leaving you with my YouTube channel and vlogmas somebody please keep the tradition going.

Jimmy Coates

My Favorite Memory: The Double Whammy Relay Team

My Senior Will: To Braydon Malley and Chris Canterino, i leave full control of summer practices and the cross country team. Don't mess it up. Also to Braydon Malley, I pass down the beloved pink baton and hope you achieve many more victories with it, along with the role of Lane 8 Captain. To Jason, I leave the status of having the best fro on the cross country team. To Chris Watson, I leave a fully-functional, holeless pair of running shoes. To Dimitri, I leave nothing. To Collin Stevens, I leave a bottle of sunscreen. Finally, to the track and cross country teams, I thank you all for being great teammates and leave my best wishes a for a successful future.

Ryan Ferguson

My Favorite Memory: The Double Whammy Relay Team

My Senior Will: To Seelaus, I leave my endurance to complete the 2-in-12. To Braydon, I leave my warzone skills and full control over Liam, take good care of our son for me. To Dimitri, I leave lane leader of the long sprinter warm ups because you love sprinting. To Chris Canterino, I leave the 3200. I know you already own it, just make sure Braydon runs one next year. To Chris Watson, I leave water. Lastly, to Andy, I leave the prestigious Honda CRV so you have a ride to soccer and track practice next year.

Emma Klanica

My Favorite Memory: Going to states for volleyball sophomore year

My Senior Will: To Jane Nelson, it is my honor to pass on Kaia's house to you, which I so graciously received from Leigh last year. Take care of volleyball for me <3

Michael Sweeley

My Favorite Memory: Marathon Weekend

My Senior Will: To Niko and Dom I leave you the train tracks. I also leave you the bee hives that are on every square inch. To Gavin I give you my former title of "coolest hair at Rustin" To Charlie I leave artistic vision To Rylee I leave sick beats And to my friend Elliot Zhou, I leave my insane amounts of swagger. Use them well.

Caitlin McGonagle

My Favorite Memory: Freshman year Spike the Rock Tournament

My Senior Will: To my sissy Ali, I leave you my closet, try not to wear all my cute clothes to school. To my brother Danny, I leave you my beloved car, AKA Kitty Girl. Under no means are you allowed to rename her, and for the love of god please don't drive too slow (good luck getting to school on time without me). To Danny Shevlin, I leave you Jenny (sorry Grace) take all your friends to the Amish Market after school for us. To the RGS fam, I leave you the bench, Emer, Ris, MJ and I kept it warm for you. Mia Amen please do the worm for me. Thank you Rustin for giving me the best memories!

Erin Shoop

My Favorite Memory: Dancing at the pep rallies!

My Senior Will: To Sammi Raimondo and Sophie Watson, I leave the Rustin Dance Team. Don't let the marching band steal our spotlight. Remember to always check the music before performances and never forget the pinkies! To the next student council president, I leave you the role of Mr. Arndt's personal secretary. You better get used to working the remind! To Cara, I leave Buzz. Don't spill too many pink drinks in my car and you better find someone else willing to finance your Dunkin addiction.

Jess Burt

My Favorite Memory: Hands down when Emma Sloan set herself on fire in our chem class.

My Senior Will: To Lizzie Bednar, I leave you the neighborhood. You're now gonna be the oldest kid on the lane. That means you get all the babysitting gigs haha. Take good care of Evie Lane. I'll miss you :((((To Joe Lawler, I leave you all of my gingerbread houses. Enjoy. To Brooke Burke, I leave you all my dogs. Take good care of them, especially the one with no eyes. I'll also leave you my giant bags of cashews. To Seannetta Ray, I leave you the mayo hegar needle holders. Just bc it's so fun to say. Good luck in vet science next year, don't have too much fun without me hahah, i'll miss you guys.

Mary Jane Alles

My Favorite Memory: Breaking my ankle at soccer, its kind of hilarious

My Senior Will: To Molly, I leave you the car and my closet, I know you are going to destroy both. To RGS, I leave you my cleats I threw out the bus window, good luck finding them on the side of 202. To Mia Amen, I leave you the captain band I never got, we all know your names all over that. To Jen Ely, I leave you Tik Tok, you are truly so inspiring. To Ali McGonagle, I leave you the song Japan, do your best to dance like Cait did.

Maddie Ciunci

My Favorite Memory: Spirit week and performing at the pep rally

My Senior Will: To Molly Winfield, I leave you my spot on RDT. To Lizzie Bednar, I leave you my spicy pasta vodka recipe and my driving skills ;) To Joe Lawler, I leave you Big League Haircuts. And to Amanda Ciunci, I leave you my wardrobe and my car. Always remember to have fun in high school because trust me, it'll fly by.

Sydney Layton

My Favorite Memory: Spirit week & pep rallies

My Senior Will: To Ri, I leave my driving abilities along with my car (take care of her), the answers to alllll of your questions, and my GPA, because I know you're gonna need it :). I love you little sis, you'll do great <3. To Dimitri, I leave you the trashcan spot I never got & the aux... play something I would like tho. Also, because I drove you, it's your turn to drive Ri. Thanks for putting up with me. To Jake Purcell, I leave you my comebacks and sense of style. I'll miss your jokes about Ryan. And to Ben Mehan, I leave you all of the math answers.

Lauren Miller

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory was for sure the last month and a half of sophomore year when I hid a picture of spongebob around Mr. Reyna's room every single day until he noticed. If you were wondering, no, he never actually noticed until the last day of school when I told him about it. The runner up would definitely be the time I started balling my eyes out in Mrs. Ernst's class because I didn't know what I was doing and we both just sat there cracking up about it.

My Senior Will; I, Lauren Miller, leave my camera and my photography skills to Nick Vasques even after his incredible "Spoon Reflecting a Christmas Tree" photo was published for everyone in class to see and to make fun of--including Arcscott. To Ross Sumner, Holly Turner, and Allison White, I leave my calculator and all of my math answers since not a single one of us knew what we were ever actually doing in math class. To Joe Lawler, I leave you my job at Panera solely because your sister told me to when I asked her what to give you. And to Ryan Layton, my favorite best friend's little sister, I leave Syd and I's legacy for you to continue on with in Mrs. Ernst's class. That's slightly awkward if you don't end up having her but I'll just hope that you do. If that's the case, then I will also leave you my dog Ted so he can vibe with your chickens.

Francesca Martini

My Favorite Memory: Nothing

My Senior Will: To Phillip, I leave you the best car in the world, Freckles (hopefully you can bring her back to life for another use) and my premium red member status at Chickfila. To Nick Covis, I leave to you the responsibility of driving both our moms home after a night out, the car ride never gets easier. To Sophia Roselli, I leave you the Impriano household, say hi to Pawly for me and see you in South Carolina! To everyone in Rustin volleyball, hopefully you can finish out your senior year playing (I couldn't).

Danielle Margarite

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory would probably be doing the shows in Rustin's theatre group.

My Senior Will: To Sieira Dunne, I leave you a leading role in a show. To Amber Thomas, I leave you my complete love and affection. To Will Bosch, I leave you an orange. To Lena Cugini, I leave you my jealousy of your beautiful singing voice. To Nate Wise, I would leave you my humor, but you're already too funny. To Corinne Atwell and Skye Barry, I leave you both Musty Tom. To H. Zangwill, I leave you the world because you deserve it. To John Sommerfield, I leave you my reindeer horn. To Abby Schlack, I leave you a 25% share of dating privileges with my husband, James Buchanan Barnes. To Mark Norbury, I leave you a "fiRe aLaRm". Stay safe and stay swaggy! Peace and love, Dani.

Chloe Covis

My Favorite Memory: Spike the Rock & Football Games

My Senior Will: To Nick and Phillip, I leave you me and Fran's pet fish that is somehow still alive. I also leave Phillip the flying pizza in the Florida hotel lobby and the Covis mac and cheese. Nick, I leave you with the responsibility of being the favorite and only child. This responsibility comes with both good and bad (Life- 360, a spot in the garage, cameras outside and flushed toilets). I know you will miss me paying for your meal every time we go out to eat. To Nikki Lee, I leave you Ruby's Diner and lots of buffalo chicken tenders to eat at table 21. Lastly, to Sophia Roselli, I leave you Cyclebar and all of my non existent math skills.

Katie Bednar

My Favorite Memory: Spirit week or junior year class with Bres

My Senior Will: To my little sis Lizzie, I leave you the honda accord (since you are definitely not getting a jeep), all of my penn state clothes and my legacy at Rustin. It's a tough act to follow so make sure you don't mess it up. You better visit me next year!! To Nick Vasques, I leave you all of our amazing spanish projects and the responsibility of being Breslin's favorite (now that i'll be gone). Finally, to Avery Patel and Andy Saccomandi, I leave you Lizzie. Treat her well and comfort her because she will be really sad when I leave.

Abby Kocher

My Favorite Memory: Traveling to Disney World with the Marching Band and getting to march down Main Street USA in the parade.

My Senior Will: To Kit, Ellie, and Aubrey, I (along with Kelsey) leave the Sign Language and Braille Club. I hope you run it in good health, and are able to hold in-person meetings before too much longer. Feel free to reach out with any questions, and don't forget to invite me back, especially for the food. To Kit, Reilly, Kenny, Andy, and Natalie, I (and all graduating woodwinds) leave the woodwind section of the Marching Band, and I wish you the best of luck for the seasons to come.

Marisa Betchyk

My Favorite Memory: soccer, basketball, and lacrosse seasons

My Senior Will: To my sister Hannah, I leave you the Carola and runs in the neighborhood. To rgs I leave you my shin guards at Kelly Field, and hopefully there isn't a new coach ever year. To Rustin basketball I leave the juniors the team sleepovers, enjoy your last year of them. To Brigid I leave you to pick someone for 1v1s, choose wisely. To Laine I leave you every rebound and Elizabeth long sleeve Tuesdays. Gianna, Maddie, and Laney, I hope you see hammy next year. To lacrosse I leave you my one cradle wonder. And to Lola I leave you defense, keep using your lego hands. Thank you to everyone who has made my high school experience so fun!

Kelsey Hull

My Favorite Memory: I enjoyed all the clubs I joined, and getting to know my classmates and teachers.

My Senior Will: To Aubrey, Ellie, and Kit, I leave the Sign Language Braille Club. I know Abby and I have left it in good hands (and fingertips). To the Rustin Golden Knights Marching Band, I know I'm not as much appreciated as Jimmy, but I hope you've enjoyed my participation, and continue to march on.

Sara Jackson

My Favorite Memory: Storming the football field after beating East in playoffs last year

My Senior Will: To my forever hype girl Lily Turco, I leave you the West Chester YMCA pool. Don't take one meet or practice for granted, and no matter what time of the year continue to always blast christmas music on your drives there. Will miss you more than you know, xoxo. To my not so little brother anymore Jake, I leave you Kia and Rustin High. Treat her well, try to dodge speed bumps the best you can, and continue to blast "Homecoming" on the way to lacrosse games. You're also not allowed to take off any of the stickers, sorry. Cherish every moment it goes by in the blink of an eye. Can't wait to see the big things you do these next two years. Hold down the fort while I'm gone, and try not to miss me too much;) Lastly, to the girls who have made these four years so memorable. Thank you for the endless laughs and memories that I will hold onto for life. High school would not have been the same without you guys by my side, and I don't know what I am going to do without my girls next year. I wish you all the best of luck in whatever your futures hold, see you on the flip side:)

Hana Rusi

My Favorite Memory: all the fun times with my friends <3

My Senior Will: To Maya Meintel, I leave my guitar playing skills, the ability to shred and the duty of looking out for Agron at shoprite. To Will Bosch, I leave you my extremely debilitating senioritis. To my dear crew babies: Corinne, Luke, Sydney and Lily I leave you my painting-on-big-surfaces skills and the audacity to deal with Byerly that I didn't get to use up this year. To Neil Barbara, I give you the inspiration to keep skating To Evan Starr, why do they call it oven when you of in the cold food of out hot eat the food To Richard Park, I give you the ability to juggle a soccer ball infinitely To Moira and Marley, you guys are just super cool I give you positive vibes to last you the rest of your high school experience.

Justin Petty

My Favorite Memory: Late night Fortnite in Quarantine

My Senior Will: To My brother Drew, I leave you showing up to school late and running from the J lot. To Marek and Toni I leave you my crazy knees and my left hand. Too Little boy Fleury I leave you Bear Creek.

Raquel Dunleavy

My Favorite Memory: spending so much time in ms bryan's room despite never attending one of her classes.

My Senior Will: Hi guys. Im gonna leave everyone a piece of personal advice. First off Will Bosch: you're a psychopath. Avani Kuders: yeagerist. Molly Winfield: hey girl heyy. Grace Walsh: kiribaku <3

Emerson Penney

My Favorite Memory: spirit week!!!!

My Senior Will: To Danny Mcgonagle I leave you the slopes. Don't shred them too hard. To Danny Shevlin, I leave you with Morgan...please put her to bed for me. To Brigid Durant I leave you the biggest hug. Stay awesome. To drew petty I leave you luck trying to get to school on time because the Jeep Lib is one of a kind. To RGS I leave you all the minutes I didn't play. Mia amen make sure you take all the minutes you possibly can. Thanks for treating me well Rustin, you will be missed.

Gianna June

My Favorite Memory: Mr. Blankenhagen's homeroom. Madison Iacobucci screaming at 7:20 am.

My Senior Will: To all underclassmen, I leave you my 4 year long senioritis. I promise you it will happen before senior year. To the underclassmen that take over Ruby's diner, I leave you long nights wondering why you even applied and lots of tears during a dinner rush.

Jaden Mercy

My Favorite Memory: Meeting the friends I have now

My Senior Will: Weychert, L from our basketball game, share it with Mr. Breslin too

Amaya LaToison

My Favorite Memory: the pep rally

My Senior Will: To my little brother Yaphet, I leave my parking spot. To my spanish buddy Dani, I leave chips and salsa days. To cheer sister Lainey, I leave you with our Sheboygan boy memories.

Sara Garvey <3

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory was when the hockey team played at the flyers stadium

My Senior Will: To Cooper Rutherford, I leave my awful attendance record. I am 100% positive you can uphold this. I also leave you Cecilia and I's seat on the bus. Your welcome. Lastly, to Endi Basha, I leave you my spot in study hall.

Travis Riley

My Favorite Memory: Playing for the football and track team

My Senior Will: To Baydon, Chris, and Carter, I leave you all of my love and affection. There is enough to share. To Anthony Meadows, I leave you the defense and the play calling. I won't be there to tell you what to do anymore. To my brother Colin, I leave you absolutely nothing. To Ross, Bri, and Dayshawn, I leave you the sprint group and the hard workouts from Coach Grant. To the rest of the football team, enjoy it while it lasts because it goes by fast. To the rest of the track team, the sprint group will always be the better group.

Connor Rydel

My Favorite Memory: Our late night drives listening to "I Wonder" by Kanye and the cross country sleep away trip to Owego

My Senior Will: To the whole Junior class I leave the football student section, make sure you party twice as hard, you have to make up for our gap year. To nick long I leave shin splints, trips to mickey D's, and the entirety of the railroad tracks. And to Evan and the neighborhood kiddos, I leave my car, make sure to never give him aux and to waste all his gas money.

Jaime Fleming

My Favorite Memory:

My Senior Will: To John Sommerfield, I leave my after-practice talks with Byerly and gymnastic skills. To Danielle Nicole Monahan, I leave my penguin waddle. To Nate, I leave the change. To Amber, Cakey Nana, I leave my patience; good luck next year and keep everyone in line. To H Zangwill, I leave my stage management. To Kenny, I leave my backstage dancing. To Abby Schlack, I leave my intimidation factor. To Maddie, I also leave my patience, good luck next year, you'll need it. To the sophomores, you know who you are, take care of each other. To Nolan, I leave my little boy roles. To Dayshawn, I leave my beautiful singing voice. To Billy and Bryce, I leave you nothing. To Nicholas Marafino, I leave Shea, take care of her next year. And finally, to Shea, I leave my program shirt and responsibility for decorating the criminal justice classroom.

Olivia Adler

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory during my high school years was dancing at football games!

My Senior Will: To Sammi Raimondo, I leave my spot next to you at the barre in ballet and my Grammy's pool so you can tan. To Sophie Watson, I leave clothes from my closet and my dogs. To Freddy Adler, I leave my good looks and Howard the Honda.

Jon Warner

My Favorite Memory: Storming the field after we beat East in district playoffs

My Senior Will: To Ross Sumner, I leave you my constant hamstring problems and shin splints. Don't let them affect you like they affected me. I also leave you my 4x2 spot, hopefully you'll actually show up to run it. To Dom and Nico, I leave you post practice Freddy's runs, you both still owe me 4 dollars. To Jake Loveland, I leave you my gold baton and spikes. Take care of those flashy things. To David Youn, I leave you all the hurdles to run around. Maybe this time you won't end up on Runnerspace. To Liam Stigora, I leave you absolutely nothing.

Molly Sproull

My Favorite Memory: Friendsgiving

My Senior Will: To the future Rustin graduates, I leave perseverance. Keep moving forward, don't give up!

Melanie Blazey

My Favorite Memory: Even though moving from SC to PA during my last year in high school, I have enjoyed playing basketball with a great and amazing group of girls. Something from my last school that I have enjoyed was going to sporting events, BMOC, school pageants, and participating in spirit week.

My Senior Will: To my sister, I leave you success and hopefulness into the next and last year of high school. To also cherish the memories you create at Rustin after moving from SC during a pandemic.

Grace McCabe

My Favorite Memory: Football Games

My Senior Will: To Connor I leave Sally the Solara, hopefully she will last long enough for you to drive her. To the softball freshmen, I leave the responsibility to bring snacks and energy drinks to the games. Swedish Fish and Bangs are a must.

Hsing-Ling Chi

My Favorite Memory: Observe new stuff with friends in class.

My Senior Will: To my siblings Natalie and Ian, I leave the Chi spirit. Don't forget to reach out your goal each year and getting better! To Evelina, Shayra, Reagan, and all the teachers who had taught/ inspired me before, I leave you all my big hug and love! To all the ESL students, I leave all my works and just follow Mrs. Coni you will doing great job on your learning. Don't be afraid.

Karisma Jaini

My Favorite Memory: The day I met my twin flame, Aubrey Eason, in Creative Workshop.

My Senior Will: Tony O'Neal-- You are unironically one of the funniest people alive. I give you my ability to pass math classes because you're stat-maxed in literally every other department. Oh, and my one brain cell. Please use it for self-care (as I did not). Moira Hill-- I leave you my last grain of sanity and my ability to manically write 10k words of a story in a night. Flatline, you're one of the best people I've met and I think you put up with a lot more than you need to. Remember, you always deserve better. And if you need me, I will always be on your side <3 Cassidy McHugh-- I have kitty washi tape in my closet. It's been holding me together emotionally for the past 4 years. You'll need it. Davis Patel-- I leave you Model UN. RIP our travel plans and hopefully things get better. Fr though, you're sweet and a good leader. Keep that energy going into the future. Ann Semeao-- I give you the Creative Writing Club!! I have had so much fun with the club this year and I hope you have fun with it in the coming years as well. Your writing has such a strong voice and I always love it when I get to hear you share in club. Have more faith in your writing! You're seriously powerful. Gayatri Venkatesan-- Student Equity Team needs someone like you, which is why I absolutely think you're the perfect successor. You take initiative and you're so genuine and hardworking and funny. I wish you luck in the coming years. Along with the club, I give you my last ounce of patience which has gotten me through a lot of microaggressions when I thought I was past my limit for coughs ... majority population foolery. I had a lot of fun with you in both CWC and SET, thanks for the wonderful year. :)

Emma Harkins

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memories are fall festival during cross country pre-season ever-year and Hockey and football games junior year. (when we actually could attend).

My Senior Will: To my brother George, I leave the very end of the long Harkins legacy at Rustin, please don't mess it up thank you. I also leave you Stewie please take good care of him he is a fragile old car. To Rose Plona, Natalie Bump, and Kaaviya Senthil, I leave the JV half of the girls cross country team please keep them in line and I wish you guys the best of luck next year. To Lexy Lutcavage, I leave our everyday struggle to run during track and our neighborhood walks. Last but not least to Skylar Baur I leave my parking spot, please paint eggs on it again. I also leave you my sassy remarks and my ability to annoy DePaol everyday. This is a full time job he will hit you with pressure points and stomach punches so watch out.

Domenic Romeo

My Favorite Memory: Mrs. Jones Bio Class Freshman Year

My Senior Will: To Kyleigh Blohm and Tyler Abrego, I leave Wesley Ct., take care of the neighborhood. To Tim Hess, I leave my hockey number #53.

Samantha Burns

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory during my high school years was playing soccer for Rustin and having labs with my friends.

My Senior Will: To Sabrina, my sister, I leave you my car to drive to school and amazing three more years of high school!

Gracy Shivers

My Favorite Memory: RGB, especially beating Hatboro-Horsham in districts junior year

My Senior Will: To my brother Cooper, I leave my academic motivation and my car (you're welcome)... try not to miss me too much. To Drew Munro I leave the right to annoy Cooper. To Laine and Elizabeth, I leave our morning drives and dunkin medium iced coffees with cream, sugar, and caramel that you can somehow finish in 5 seconds. To Brigid Durant I leave starbucks cold brew (still impressed you drink it black) and keeping everyone hype on RGB. To Gianna Larosa I leave my ability to talk to and make eye contact with Stack, and catching up on the drama during stretches. Thank you to everyone who made my high school experience so great! I'll miss you all so much!

Jacob "Barks" Barksdale

My Favorite Memory: Hitting Sam Eskider in the back of the head with a tennis ball

My Senior Will: To Jack Shoup I leave the big man basket, To Calvin Fisher I leave the title of best defensive line man, To Ryan Jackson I leave the responsibility of bullying the freshman, and to Carter Bucci I leave my ability to not trip over my own feet

Tarana Patel

My Favorite Memory: Child dev & decorating for post prom

My Senior Will: To my tuesday strength partner, Brooke Kruger, I leave you a limitless supply of Dunkin for Gaby so that she's less mean to you guys at practice. To the floor queen, Shea Fleming, I leave you a bottle of nail polish remover so Missy doesn't throw a fit when you have your nails done at a meet. To my favorite cousin Avani, I leave you the infamous "Brez's fav student" t-shirt and a case of your favorite soft drinks! And finally, to the person who's always cheering everyone on, Liv Simpson, I leave you some tape and painkillers for all the injuries gymnastics gave you. Don't have too much fun at practice without me next year ;) I'll miss you guys so much and make the most of your last few years of high school!!! Love, Tarana

Katy Ricketts

My Favorite Memory: Suarez Scavenger Hunt

My Senior Will: To Brigid Durant, I leave you endlessly running around the crease, watch out for Lex's shot and come visit me. To Maya, Maggie, and Sammy, I leave you running to the 50 and back, it never gets better than hearing those 3 words yelled at you. To the rest of RGL, I leave you circle drill, boom boom boom, and ball hunt. To Lily Turco, I leave you lane 4, go crazy at practice for me. To Ava Panetta I leave you all my love, don't miss me too much.

Brady Jones

My Favorite Memory: Throwin rocks at the manhole cover

My Senior Will: To Nick Long, I leave my DVD copy of the 2011 film Hop, the only good rabbit movie. To Chris "The Junior" Watson, I leave some long talon-like fingernails to ensure his defense from predators. To Moira Hill I leave an ancient alien. And to Chuck Shaw, I leave my brain in a can.

Jenna Walls

My Favorite Memory: Dance team performances, musicals, speaking contest, and graduating!

My Senior Will: To my dance team girls, I leave pep rallies, fun performances and lots of love. To Sammi and Sophie, I leave the captain spots. I know you both will do an amazing job running the team. To Kailey and Ainsley, I leave you the stress of being the President's daughter, our dances to ABDA, and my job of being team cheerleader. I love you girls like sisters. To Maddie Novak, I leave you Rustin Theater, good luck I love you!! To Chloe Boucher I leave you ABDA, make the most of your classes. To my fellow classmates, good luck on future endeavors, I wish you all the best!

Cindy Le

My Favorite Memory: Neil barbara.

My Senior Will: I give all my crab rangoons to Neil.

Cecilia Bunn

My Favorite Memory: Mr. Suarez physics class, football games

My Senior Will: To Cooper, I leave bus #144 and kenmara park.

Patience Stigora

My Favorite Memory: I really enjoyed different classes I took and the memories I made there (Child Development, Photography, Holocaust History).

My Senior Will: To my parents thank you for being a constant encouragement. Don't miss me too much. I'll come visit. To Elisha, I know you're graduating too, but here's to all the memories of Byrd's class last year. To my little brother John I leave memories of terrible selfies and laughing. To my sister Joy I leave my motivation for learning, I can only hope you'll use it. To Liam, take some of my motivation from Joy, she doesn't need it all. To Amber I leave the stacks in the library, not that I spent the time I wanted to there in High School, but I'll be back so take care of it. To Austen I'm throwing the leadership of the Rustin Students For Life group. Lead them well.

Reece Shockley

My Favorite Memory: Meeting my new friends

My Senior Will: To my friend Jazz, I leave you my smash skills. Might help you in the future

Adam DeMichael

My Favorite Memory: My favorite memory during my high school years was doing Sporcles at lunch.

My Senior Will: To my brother, I leave the spot in the cafeteria where there is good reception.

Danny Au

My Favorite Memory: During my freshmen year during the pep rally, in the juniors section yelled "We won't miss you" to the seniors. I liked how simple and blunt it was and looked forward to it this year for my class. Whatever 2020.

My Senior Will: To the class of 2022, I leave you the class of 2025. Be gentle. To my own class, I leave you nothing other than "Good luck & thank you."

Michael Smith

My Favorite Memory: my favorite memory was making new friends and enjoying my 4 years of highschool.

My Senior Will: To, Dylan Leever i wish you luck on beating my 100 meter time. i leave you my running talent.

Kenzie McGrath

My Favorite Memory: Football games and spirit week.

My Senior Will: To my little Conny McCabe, I leave you nothing. I hope you have a terrible time without me. To Grace Doyle I leave you the role of the chaotic one at YoungLife and reckless driving to Kanye and Kanye only. To my baby Nicky Long I leave you peace from having to deal with me. To Maddie Novak I leave the entire Theatre department, that's all you and I'll miss you. To Jack Shoup I leave FAB and that's about it. To Mr. Byerly I leave you all the salt from my tears you ever made me cry. To Mr. Smith I leave a sincere apology for letting a bird capture and kill your endangered class turtle. May she rest in peace.

Justin Rhein

My Favorite Memory: Rustin puck Jamestown trips

My Senior Will: To Dempsey, I leave the graveyard. To Stromberg, I leave the dudesons. To Harris, I leave my uncle Dave. And to Covis, I leave Saturday morning field work.

Spencer Wood

My Favorite Memory: My absolutely favorite memory from the four grueling years in Highschool was by far the time in my freshman year where I had decided to try to scare a friend in gym class and ended up scaring Mr. Philibin instead. However, the memory doesn't end just yet! Because I ended up getting him as my chemistry teacher the next year!

My Senior Will: Cant say I leave much, but I do remember forgetting a water bottle there.

Jillian Washco

My Favorite Memory: Some of my favorite memories are the random convos before homeroom, messing up every bio lab, and of course dancing at pep rally.

My Senior Will: To Ainsley, have fun walking to school for the next three years! Try to beat my four minute record. Oh and don't forget the clocks are fast. Hopefully the car doesn't die in the middle of the parking lot too! To all the dance team girlies, make the most out of everything! You might have to dance under a volleyball net one day. Have so much fun with the new coach!!

Emily Cook

My Favorite Memory: bio classes, RDT, and zoom math class poke bowl breaks with Kirsten

My Senior Will: To Shannon, I leave you luck- you are gonna need it considering you will be driving to school with Danie for the rest of your high school career. To Ainsley Eaton, I hope you are eventually better at senior assassin than I am, too bad our elaborate plans didn't work out (hey Gracy I tried). To Goldie, have fun taking over my role as driver of the group. To my RDT ladies, check the music before every performance because you won't have Jenna to save the team anymore. Good luck with the rest of high school and enjoy it!

Brian Burton

My Favorite Memory: Weasel poppin', Brotentions -- all of the antics/capers/flimflammy from any year's science class. POUND IT!

My Senior Will: One of the only things I've done that has a chance of living on is carrying on the tradition of Splanky. I herby leave this sacred charge to next year's trumpet section, namely Dylan Leever and Ben Goodwin. Make me proud by making Shoremount regret the day he ok'd that song choice.

Kara Kennedy

My Favorite Memory: All the good times in DePaols and the numerous boots i walked into rustin with

My Senior Will: To Nora, I leave you my ability to respond to texts at all times during the school day, you never know if someone could have gotten you Playa. To Danny Batchelor, never let Depaol forget the Kennedy name, it should last a lifetime. To Lauren Supplee, I leave you the weekly Pjs runs after rolleyball practice and never ever stop annoying Vecc. To Grace Doyle, I leave you a spot in the cafeteria, even though you won't use it. To Daniel Scoffone, I leave you the neighborhoods ability to always be late to school. To my underclass rolleyball girls, OTM will never die.

Gianna Zajac

My Favorite Memory: Going to Rustin Football games, RGS/Track season, and performing in Mary Poppins

My Senior Will: To my track girls, specifically, Hannah, Sophia, Paige, Sam, Natalie, and Nadia, I leave you with the very last bit of strength that I have to make it through Smith's Double Hill Loop Workouts. I would love to see another Chesmont Victory next year! To Braydon Malley, I leave you with Rezi; you are truly the best dog dad ever! Oh, and stay away from twizzlers! To Chris Canterino, unfortunately you are going to have to find another friend to make fun of for their short height while I am gone, regardless, I leave you with some amazing vinyl records. Thank you for actually having good taste in music. That being said, Carter Bucci, you can have country music because I do not want it, and I wish you the best of luck with Rustin Football next year! To my best friend Kate Lockhart, I leave you with bathroom tea time, Panera dates, and our random bursts of laughter. I also leave you with some art supplies, so you can actually participate in art class next year. To my dearest PWP neighbors, I leave you with Wacky Weekend, street hockey in the cul de sac, the Outer Banks, mudslide, and walks to the shopping center. Thank you for all the memories. I love you guys.

Abbey Lawler

My Favorite Memory: Backing into a car at Dunkin Donuts before school :'(

My Senior Will: To my little brother, Joe, I leave my Subaru. Treat her well, she's been through a lot :'). I also leave you my job at Big League (please get a haircut). You're also gonna have to hang out with Jack, now that I am gone (he'll get lonely without me). To Nick Vasquez, I leave you my water gun, and the role of being one of Breslin's favorites (ignore what Katie said, she isn't his favorite). To Maddie Novak, I leave you theater rants and my copy of After (I would leave you my knees, but you already got new ones). To Sommer Vansant, I leave you leaf chads, homework quizzes, and PGT rehearsals (also I'll leave you one of my solos because you need to do one next year). To Molly Winfield I leave you the pole in the large studio. To Lizzie Bednar, I leave my driver's license so you can get your ears pierced all by yourself and my Bruster's hat.

Congratulations,
Class of 2021!

